Connecting Futures: Discovering Computing

An innovative course that introduces computer careers to young offenders, offering a new perspective and opportunities.

The Challenge

1. Demotivation

Many young offenders face a lack of motivation.
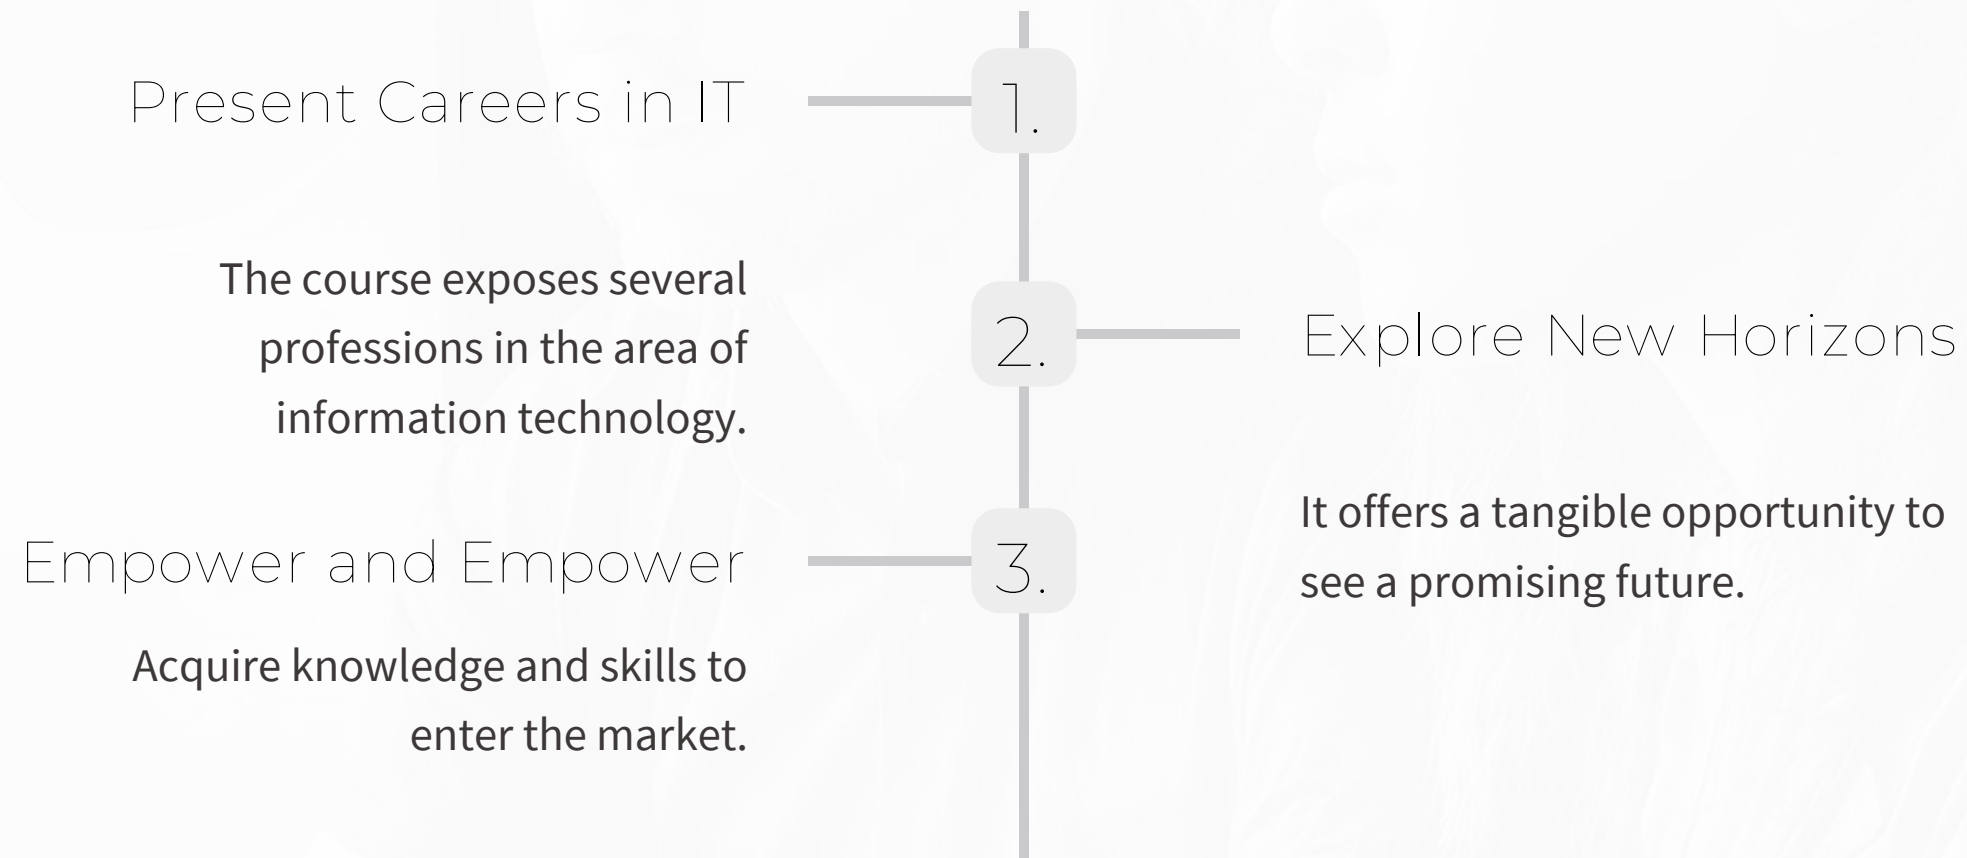

2. Lack of Support

Lack of family support increases the risk of recidivism.

3. Crime Cycle

It is crucial to offer opportunities to break this cycle.

The Transformative Solution

Present Careers in IT ——— 1.

The course exposes several professions in the area of information technology.

2. ——— Explore New Horizons

It offers a tangible opportunity to see a promising future.

Empower and Empower ——— 3.

Acquire knowledge and skills to enter the market.

Featured Careers

Graphic Design

Creating eye-catching visual designs.

Computer Technician

Hardware and software maintenance and repair.

Network Administrator

Computer network management.

More Careers Explored

Programming
Front end, back end, and web development.

Cybersecurity
Protecting systems from virtual threats.

Systems Analysis
Analysis and design of information systems.

Course Structure

Content available in documents: Course plan and programmatic content

Course Plan	Detailed content and timeline.
Programmatic Content	Specific topics and activities.

Transformative Benefits

1

2

3

4

New Perspective

It opens doors to a promising future.

Professional Skills

Develops essential social and technical skills.

Positive Alternative

It offers an alternative route to the cycle of crime.

Dignified Future

It inspires to build a rewarding future.

Call to Action

I believe that our support can significantly impact the lives of these young people. By collaborating together, we will be investing in your potential and offering a positive alternative. I count on you to join us in this goal of transforming lives through education. Let's make a difference!

- Prof. Douglas Brum da Costa Filho